Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file depicts a young man posing naked outdoors.

Consideration has been given to whether the publication promotes or supports, or tends to promote or support, the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes. The age of the image's subject is difficult to ascertain but he has the appearance of a young adult rather than a young person. As such, the publication cannot fairly be said to promote or support, or tend to promote or support, the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes.

The explicit nature of the image and the fact that it is clearly intended for the purpose of sexual arousal mean that a restriction on its availability to adults is necessary.

The New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 has been considered in the application of the criteria of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 to this publication. The classification places a limit on the freedom of expression, but the availability of the publication to children and young people is likely to be injurious to the public good. The classification is reasonable, demonstrably justifiable and the minimum required to avoid injury.
